

REFUND AND EXCHANGE FORM

IAP offers a 100% 45-day money-back product satisfaction guarantee (less shipping charges) to all Retail Customers for their products purchased for personal use.

IAP offers a 100% 45-day money-back guarantee to all Retail Customers and every Representative is bound to honor the guarantee. If, for any reason, a Retail Customer is dissatisfied with any IAP product, they may return it to IAP. The preferred method for all returns is for the customer to return the product directly to IAP following the procedures and instructions set forth on the return policy available on the IAP website. If needed, the Representative should assist the customer to insure that the proper procedures are followed.

If your Retail Customer purchases a product directly from IAP, then unless otherwise required by applicable law or a specific product guarantee, IAP will provide your Retail Customer with a 100% refund (less shipping costs) on the returned product or an exchange. The product must be returned within 45 days from the purchase date, unused, in original packaging and in accordance with the return policies and procedures available on the IAP website.
